1.4 Event of Default

An Event of Default is "continuing" or "subsists" if it has not been waived by the Secured Party or remedied.

2 Creation and discharge of security interest

2.1 Creation

The Grantor charges and grants a security interest in the Secured Property to the Secured Party to secure the performance by the Grantor of the Secured Obligations and the payment of the Secured Money.

2.2 Nature of security interest

- (a) Subject to clause 2.2(b), this Deed constitutes:
 - (i) a Security Interest in all present and after acquired personal property; and
 - (ii) a fixed charge over:
 - (A) any Secured Property which is not personal property; and
 - (B) any interest of the Grantor in the Secured Property to the extent that section 8(1) of the PPSA applies.

- (b) To the extent that any of the Non PPSA Property consists of Charged Debts, Debt Proceeds or inventory, the charge will operate as a floating charge in respect of that property until either the Secured Party gives a notice fixing the charge to the Grantor or an Event of Default occurs.
- (c) If any Secured Property becomes subject to a fixed charge under clause 2.2(b) the Secured Party may give the Grantor a notice stating that, from a date specified in the notice, the Secured Property specified in the notice is no longer subject to a fixed charge and is again subject to a floating charge.

2.3 Priority

The Parties intend that the Encumbrance created by this Deed takes priority over all other Encumbrances over the Secured Property at any time, other than any Encumbrance mandatorily preferred by law.

2.4 Discharge

The Secured Party must at the request of the Grantor discharge the Encumbrance created by this Deed if:

- (a) the Secured Obligations have been satisfied;
- (b) none of the Secured Money is owing (whether actually, contingently or prospectively); and
- (c) it is not reasonably foreseeable that there could be any Secured Obligations to be satisfied, or any Secured Money owing, in the future.

2.5 Delivery of documents

The Grantor must deliver to the Secured Party a copy of each Access Agreement and Direction to Pay Undertaking as soon as practicable after each document is signed by all of the parties to it.

3 Representations and warranties

3.1 Representations and warranties by Grantor

The Grantor represents and warrants that:

- (a) it is a corporation validly existing under the laws applicable to it;
- (b) it is able to pay its debts as and when they fall due;
- (c) it has the power to enter into this Deed and perform its obligations under this Deed, and has obtained all necessary consents to enable it to do so;
- (d) its obligations under this Deed are enforceable in accordance with their terms;
- (e) no litigation, arbitration or administrative proceeding has been commenced before, and no judgment or award has been given or made by, any court, arbitrator, other tribunal or governmental agency against it which would have a material adverse effect on its ability to observe its obligations under this Deed;

- (f) it is not in breach or default under any agreement to which it is a party to an extent or in a manner which would have a material adverse effect on its ability to perform its obligations under this Deed;
- (g) the Grantor has, or will upon signing of the relevant Access Agreements and Directions to Pay have, good title to the Secured Property and good right to grant the Security Interest in and to charge the Secured Property in the manner provided in this Deed;
- (h) the Secured Property is free of all Encumbrances;
- (i) no interest, right or entitlement to receive any benefit or profit from the Secured Property has been assigned or is subject to an Encumbrance in favour of any other person;
- (j) this Deed is legally binding on the Grantor and all necessary authorisations have been obtained to authorise the unconditional execution, delivery and performance of this Deed and those authorisations are valid and subsisting;
- (k) the execution, delivery and performance of this Deed and each transaction contemplated by this Deed does not violate or breach any law or any document or agreement to which it is a party or which binding on it or any of its assets; and
- (l) the entry into and the performance of its obligations under this Deed is in its best interests and for a proper purpose.

3.2 Representations and warranties repeated

Each representation and warranty in this clause 3 will be repeated on each day while any of the Secured Money remains outstanding with reference to the facts and circumstances then subsisting, as if made on each such day.

4 Obligations

Except with the prior written consent of the Secured Party, the Grantor must not:

- (a) create any Encumbrance over the Secured Property; or
- (b) dispose of, or permit to exist, any other interest in the Secured Property.

5 Default powers

5.1 Exercise of powers

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, at the option of the Secured Party:

- (a) the Secured Money becomes immediately due and payable on demand from the Grantor;
- (b) all Powers not previously exercisable become exercisable; and

- (c) the rights of the Grantor to deal with the Secured Property (other than through a Receiver appointed under this Deed) immediately cease.

5.2 General dealings

The Secured Party may for the purpose of ensuring that the Secured Obligations are performed:

- (a) take possession and control of the Secured Property;
- (b) quietly enjoy and otherwise deal with the Secured Property; and
- (c) exercise the rights of the Grantor and comply with its obligations in respect of the Secured Property and allow any other person to comply with the person's obligations in respect of the Secured Property.

5.3 Insolvency

Where a debt which forms part of the Secured Money is owed (whether actually or contingently) to the Grantor, the Secured Party may, at any time while an Event of Default is continuing, prove for the debt in an Insolvency, receive dividends in respect of the debt and assent to any proposal for an arrangement (including a scheme of arrangement or deed of company arrangement), composition or a compromise with, or an assignment for the benefit of, creditors in respect of the debt.

5.4 Ancillary powers

The Secured Party may at any time while an Event of Default is continuing:

- (a) execute any deed or other document as attorney for the Grantor for the purpose of exercising any of the Powers;
- (b) on behalf of the Grantor, commence, defend, prosecute, settle, discontinue and compromise litigation, administrative or arbitral proceedings in relation to the Secured Property;
- (c) enter into and execute and deliver documents and agreements in respect of the exercise of the Powers;
- (d) on behalf of the Grantor, give receipts for and release, waive, vary, settle, compromise, discount or write off any actual or contingent debt or other monetary obligation from time to time forming part of the Secured Money;
- (e) delegate to any person any Power (including this right of delegation);
- (f) exercise all or any of the Powers conferred on a Receiver, or which would be conferred on a Receiver if appointed, as if those Powers had been expressly conferred on the Secured Party; and
- (g) do anything incidental or conducive to the exercise of any of its Powers.

5.5 Appointment of Receivers

The Secured Party may at any time while an Event of Default is continuing:

- (a) either before or after it has taken possession of the Secured Property appoint:
 - (i) any one or more persons to be a receiver or receiver and manager of the Secured Property or a part of it; and
 - (ii) a different receiver or receiver and manager for different parts of the Secured Property;
- (b) if more than one person is appointed as Receiver of any property, empower them to act jointly or jointly and severally;
- (c) remove the Receiver, appoint another in his or her place if the Receiver is removed, retires or dies, and reappoint a Receiver who has retired or been removed; and
- (d) fix the reasonable remuneration of the Receiver.

5.6 Act jointly

The Secured Party and each Receiver may exercise any of the Powers in conjunction with the exercise of similar powers by the holder of any other Encumbrance over the Secured Property or by any receiver or receiver and manager appointed by that other holder and may enter into and give effect to agreements and arrangements with that other holder, receiver or receiver and manager as the Secured Party of the Receiver thinks fit.

6 Receivers

6.1 Agent

A Receiver is the agent of the Grantor who alone is responsible for the Receiver's acts and omissions and remuneration.

6.2 Powers

- (a) A Receiver has all of the following powers:
 - (i) all of the powers granted to a receiver of property of a corporation under section 420 of the Corporations Act;
 - (ii) to take possession of the Secured Property and to deal with the Secured Property in such manner and on such terms as the Receiver thinks fit;
 - (iii) to perform, observe, carry out, enforce, exercise or refrain from exercising, the Grantor's rights and powers under any:
 - (A) Access Agreement to the extent to which those rights and powers relate directly or indirectly to the Direction to Pay Amounts; and
 - (B) Direction to Pay Undertaking;

- (iv) to obtain the benefit of, and vary or rescind the provisions of any:
 - (A) Access Agreement to the extent to which those provisions relate directly or indirectly to the Direction to Pay Amounts; and
 - (B) Direction to Pay Undertaking;
 - (v) with the Secured Party's prior approval, to delegate to any person, for any time, any of the Powers including this power of delegation;
 - (vi) to do all things the law allows an owner of any interest in the Secured Property, or any controller (as defined in the Corporations Act) of the Secured Property, to do; and
 - (vii) to do all other acts and things without limitation as the Receiver thinks expedient.
- (b) The Secured Party may by notice to a Receiver at the time of a Receiver's appointment or any subsequent times as the Secured Party thinks fit give to, or remove from, a Receiver all or any of the rights referred to in clause 6.2(a).

6.3 Indemnity

The Secured Party may give any indemnities to any Receiver concerning the performance of that Receiver's duties as are permitted by law. If the Secured Party is obliged to pay any money under any indemnity, that money will become part of the Secured Money.

7 Exercise of default rights

7.1 Mortgagee in possession

- (a) If the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney exercises its Powers under this Deed or takes possession of the Secured Property, it will not be liable to account as a mortgagee in possession.
- (b) If the Secured Party has taken possession of the Secured Property, it may give up possession of the Secured Property at any time.

7.2 Exclusion of legislation

Any statutory restrictions (other than mandatory restrictions) on any right of the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney to lease or otherwise deal with the Secured Property do not apply to the rights of those persons under this Deed.

7.3 Default notice

- (a) The Secured Party, a Receiver and an Attorney may, to the extent that any applicable law permits, exercise any Power in relation to an Event of Default that is continuing without first giving notice to the Grantor or allowing the lapse of any period of time and the Grantor and the Secured Party dispense with any requirement under any statute that notice be given by the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney, as the case may be, or that it allow the lapse of any period of time before exercising a Power. A reference to a notice under this clause 7.3 includes any notice under the PPSA (including a notice of a verification statement).

- (b) If an applicable law requires that a notice be given or a lapse of time occur before any Power can be exercised, then if no particular period of notice or lapse of time is required or a period or lapse of time is required but can be shortened by agreement, the period of notice or lapse of time is one day.

7.4 Application of money

Subject to any mandatory statutory requirements and to the rights of the holder of any Encumbrance ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, the Encumbrance under this Deed, the Remedy Proceeds must be applied by the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney in the manner and order determined by the Secured Party or, if the Secured Party does not make such a determination, as follows:

- (a) first, towards the payment or reimbursement of the costs and expenses incurred in or incidental to the exercise or enforcement of its Powers by the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney;
- (b) secondly, towards the remuneration of any Receiver or Attorney;
- (c) thirdly, in payment of the Secured Money then owing or contingently or prospectively owing, whether or not due and payable; and
- (d) fourthly, to any person entitled to the Secured Property or authorised to give receipts for that money.

7.5 Third party dealings

Any person dealing with the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney in relation to the exercise by any of them of a Power need not be concerned to enquire:

- (a) whether the Power is exercisable or properly exercised;
- (b) whether the Receiver or Attorney is properly appointed;
- (c) whether any money paid by it to the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney is properly applied; or
- (d) as to any other matter or thing,

and the title of that person to any property acquired by it from the Secured Party, Receiver or Attorney will not be adversely affected by the Power not being exercisable or any improper appointment, exercise of the Power or application of money by the Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney of which it does not have actual notice.

7.6 Accounting for Remedy Proceeds

The Secured Party, a Receiver or an Attorney is not obliged to account to the Grantor for any money relating to the exercise by any of them of any Power until money is actually received in immediately available funds and is not required to be disgorged, including if any of them sells the Secured Property on terms whereby:

- (a) any part of the purchase price remains unpaid (whether secured or unsecured) after transfer of the Secured Property to the purchaser; or
- (a) the purchase price is payable in instalments on or before the transfer of the Secured Property to the purchaser.

8 Preservation of Secured Party's rights

8.1 Continuing security

This Deed is a continuing security for the whole of the Secured Obligations and the Secured Money and is not limited to any transaction or other thing.

8.2 Preservation of Grantor's obligations

The Grantor's obligations and the Secured Party's Powers will not be affected by anything which, but for this clause 8.2, might abrogate, prejudice or limit them or the effectiveness of this Deed.

8.3 Reinstatement of rights of Secured Party

If a transaction or payment relating to the Secured Obligations is void, voidable or otherwise unenforceable or refundable:

- (a) the Secured Party is entitled against the Grantor to all Powers under this Deed that it would have had if the transaction or payment had not occurred or been made; and
- (b) the Grantor must do all things and sign such documents necessary to restore to the Secured Party the Encumbrance under this Deed and its Powers under this Deed immediately before that transaction or payment.

8.4 No conflict

The Secured Party and each Receiver may exercise any Power, even though the exercise of that Power involves a conflict between any duty owed to the Grantor by the Secured Party or that Receiver and any duty owed by the Secured Party or that Receiver to any other person or the interests of the Secured Party or that Receiver. No contract will be void or voidable by virtue of that conflict of duty or interest nor will the Secured Party or Receiver be liable to account to the Grantor or any other person for any money or property as a result of that conflict.

8.5 Indemnity

The Grantor will on demand indemnify and keep the Secured Party indemnified in respect of all costs, expenses, charges, liabilities, disbursements and taxes incurred by the Secured Party, any Receiver or any Attorney:

- (a) in the exercise, attempted exercise or non-exercise of any Power, including those resulting from any mistake, oversight, error of judgment or want of prudence on the part of the Secured Party, any Receiver or any Attorney, unless the same is due to its own gross negligence, fraud or wilful misconduct;

- (b) as a consequence of the occurrence or subsistence of any Event of Default;
- (c) by reason of this Deed;
- (d) in respect of any act or omission for which the Secured Party, any Receiver or any Attorney is exonerated by this Deed; and
- (e) by reason of the Secured Party redeeming or taking a transfer of any Encumbrance ranking in priority to or pari passu with this Deed, and the Grantor will defend all actions, proceedings, claims or demands brought by any person in relation to any matter the subject of this indemnity.

9 Attorney

9.1 Appointment

The Grantor irrevocably appoints the Secured Party and each Authorised Officer of the Secured Party individually as the Grantor's attorney with the power to do anything under clause 9.2.

9.2 Powers

If an Event of Default is continuing an Attorney may:

- (a) do all acts and things which the Grantor is obliged to do under this Deed or which in the Attorney's opinion are necessary or expedient in connection with the Secured Property, the protection or perfection of the Secured Party's interest in the Secured Property or to enable the exercise of any Power of the Secured Party in relation to this Deed; and
- (b) appoint substitutes and otherwise delegate its powers (including this power of delegation).

9.3 General

- (a) Any Attorney may exercise any Power solely for the benefit of the Secured Party, even if the exercise of the Power constitutes a conflict of interest or duty.
- (b) The Grantor by this Deed ratifies anything done or not done by the Attorney under the power of attorney.
- (c) The power of attorney is granted:
 - (i) to secure the compliance by the Grantor with its obligations to the Secured Party under this Deed and any proprietary interests of the Secured Party under this Deed; and
 - (ii) for valuable consideration (receipt of which is acknowledged) which includes the entry into of this Deed by the Secured Party at the Grantor's request.

- (d) The Grantor agrees that the power of attorney will continue in force until all actions taken under it have been completed, despite the discharge of this Deed.

10 General

10.1 Disputes

If any Dispute arises between the Parties under this Deed, the Parties must follow the Dispute Resolution Process to resolve that Dispute.

10.2 Confidentiality

The Parties must comply with the Confidentiality Obligations in respect of Confidential Information.

10.3 Notices

Any notice, demand, certification, process or other communication (Notice) under this Deed must comply with and be given in accordance with the Extension Project Agreement as if the Notice were a notice under that document.

10.4 Assignment

A Party may only assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, make the subject of a trust or otherwise deal with or encumber all or any of its rights or liabilities under this Deed (or procure any of those things) in accordance with the Extension Project Agreement.

10.5 GST

- (a) Any reimbursement required to be made by the Grantor under this deed for a Cost or other amount paid or incurred by the Secured Party will be limited to the total Cost or other amount less the amount of any input tax credit to which the Secured Party is entitled for the acquisition to which the Cost or other amount relates.
- (b) If GST is payable in respect of any supply made by or through the Secured Party under, pursuant to, or in connection with this deed (GST Liability), then:
 - (i) where consideration is provided by the Grantor in relation to that supply, the Grantor will pay an additional amount to the Secured Party equal to the full amount of the GST Liability; and
 - (ii) except where clause (b)(i) applies, the Grantor will indemnify and keep the Secured Party indemnified for the full amount of the GST Liability.
- (c) The Secured Party will provide to the Grantor a tax invoice complying with the relevant law relating to any payment made to it in accordance with this clause 10.5(b).

10.6 PPSA

- (a) The Secured Party is not required to give any notice under the PPSA to the Grantor or any other person and the Grantor waives the right to receive any such notice (including a notice of verification statement) unless the notice is required by the PPSA and that obligation cannot be excluded.
- (b) The Parties contract out of sections 125, 132(3)(d), 132(4) 142 and 143 of the PPSA to the extent mentioned in section 115(1) of the PPSA.
- (c) Unless expressed to the contrary, “control”, “perfection”, “personal property”, “register”, “security interest” and “verification statement” each has the meaning given in the PPSA.
- (d) The Parties agree that, to the extent permitted (despite any other provision in the Extension Infrastructure Sub-Lease), they will not disclose information of the kind described by section 275(1) of the PPSA (unless section 275(7) of the PPSA applies).

10.7 Further assurances

- (a) The Grantor must promptly execute all documents and do all things that the Secured Party from time to time reasonably requires to:
 - (i) effect, perfect or complete the provisions of this Deed or any transaction contemplated by it;
 - (ii) establish the priority of or reserve or create any security interest contemplated by or purported to be reserved or created by this Deed; and
 - (iii) stamp and register this Deed in any relevant jurisdiction and by any person that the Secured Party thinks fit.
- (b) Without limiting clause 10.7(a), the Grantor agrees to make such amendments to this Deed, to provide such further information and to do such other things, as the Secured Party may reasonably require from time to time, to:
 - (i) ensure that the Encumbrance created by this Deed is, and takes effect as, a perfected security interest over all Secured Property with the ranking contemplated by this Deed;
 - (ii) ensure that the Encumbrance created by this Deed is perfected by control to the extent possible under the PPSA; and
 - (iii) otherwise to the fullest possible extent, register, protect, perfect, record and maintain the Secured Party’s position as Secured Party under the Encumbrance created by this Deed in the context of the PPSA.
- (c) The Secured Party may, at the Grantor’s cost, do anything which the Grantor should have done under this Deed if the Grantor does not do so promptly.

10.8 Dealing with Access Agreements

Nothing in this Deed prevents the Grantor from amending, terminating, granting waivers in respect of or otherwise dealing with any Access Agreement in any manner the Grantor thinks fit.

10.9 Effect of execution

This Deed:

- (a) is binding on the Grantor even if it is not executed by the Secured Party; and
- (b) is a deed, and factors which might suggest otherwise are to be disregarded.

10.10 Survival

This clause 10.10 and clauses 10.2 and [#] survive the termination of this Deed.

10.11 Incorporated General Provisions

Except to the extent of any inconsistency with this Deed, the General Provisions are taken to be incorporated into this Deed as if set out in full but with the necessary changes having been made.

10.12 Applicable law

- (a) This Deed will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws applicable in the State of Queensland.
- (b) Each Party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of courts exercising jurisdiction in the State of Queensland and courts of appeal from them in respect of any proceedings arising out of or in connection with this Deed. Each Party irrevocably waives any objection to the venue of any legal process in these courts on the basis that the process has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

10.13 Counterparts

This Deed may consist of a number of counterparts and, if so, the counterparts taken together constitute one document.
