

It is time for the Qld State Government to stop raiding funds from electricity suppliers and pass on the savings to consumers. They also need to build more coal fired power stations with our good clean coal.

Jill Lord