

the price of electricity in Regional Queensland is seriously impacting the medical condition and living condition of people in retirement and must be lowered and the 5% loading initially applied to encourage competition must be removed to lower the high energy costs and allow retired people and pensioners to survive in good health with a reasonable quality of life The impact of the high prices of energy needs urgent action not another false survey report

Phil Pollard